

GHG reporting systems

Reliable GHG data is a bedrock of corporate climate action. Verco can help you design, implement and continuously improve your GHG reporting systems. We specialise in providing solutions for companies with large and complex value chains.

We pay particular attention to linking calculation methodologies with climate strategy, so that the impacts of initiatives are measurable, and efforts are directed to the most material areas.

Contact us to find out more

Organisational footprinting

Get advice and assurance support when it comes to scope 1, 2 and 3 GHG inventories, methodology net zero readiness checks and scope and boundary reviews.

Product footprints (LCAs)

Implement GHG and full environmental life cycle assessments to PAS and ISO standards.

Data system optimisation

Receive support with bespoke system deployment, data collection automation, dashboard creation, platform procurement & on-boarding.

